

Press Release - February 2016

Manor House School Former Head Girl In Royal Family TV Documentary

Manor House School, Bookham's former Head Girl, Lauren Offin, is playing a young Princess Anne in the Channel 5 TV documentary 'Inside Windsor Castle'.

The four-part mini-series charts the lives of the Royal Family from 1936 to the present day.

Actress/model Lauren has also just made her London Fashion Week catwalk debut, taking to the runway in dresses by Kolgachov Barba and KiRiVOO.

Lauren joined Manor House School as a Drama Scholarship student and became Head Girl in 2013/14.

After leaving the selective independent day school for girls in Bookham, she joined the sixth form at Hurtwood House, Holmbury St Mary, also on a scholarship. There she gained A-levels in English Literature, Media Studies and Theatre Studies.

Lauren said: "I am extremely grateful for the opportunities Manor House School gave me and I am working hard to prove that the investment in my education was well made."

Since leaving school Lauren has been working full-time as a self-employed model and actress. Her work includes editorial, beauty, e-commerce and catwalk fashion shoots.
