International Tennis Coach Leads a new Tennis Academy

At Manor House School, Bookham

International tennis coach Jose Luis Feijoo Larraz is helping a new generation of future sports stars at Manor House School, Bookham.

He is leading the school's new Tennis Academy at the selective independent day school for girls in Bookham.

Jose Luis Feijoo Larraz coached for 13 years at the Sanchez-Casal Tennis Academy in Barcelona. During that time he trained world-ranked players including:

- Johanna Konta (development years) – currently ranked 10th by the WTA and British number one.
- Georgina Garcia
- Ramkumar Ramanathan
- Ekaterina Lopes
- Romina Oprandi (development years).

Joining Jose Luis Feijoo Larraz as Head Coach at Manor House School is fellow international coach Balraj Sohal.

He played full time at the Sanchez-Casal Academy for over four years, playing in national and international tournaments before obtaining his coaching qualifications.

The Manor House Tennis Academy is currently run on Fridays after school.

Head Teacher Tracey Fantham said: "These leading international coaches are bringing new methods of training and expertise which our players have already started to benefit from and will continue to do so over the coming months.

"If players are interested and wish to take a performance route, we hope to open some more sessions at the weekends.

"A Tennis Camp will be running during the Easter holidays providing extra tennis tuition and opportunities for established and new players at Manor House School and from other local schools," she added.
